Instructions: These “treatment cards” are placed on animal cages to identify animals receiving prescribed medical treatments. The treatments are prescribed by CARE and administered by CARE, LAS, and/or research personnel. Each treatment is to be dated and initialed by the person performing the treatment.